Spring celebrates the awakening of nature with its riot of colors and scents. And for Beauty lovers, this season coincides precisely with one of the key elements of spring, perfume, a key element for arousing an emotion, for recalling a memory, an index of the personality of the wearer. Eisenberg Paris relives its olfactory journey with the fragrance lines that have made the history of the brand's perfume, starting with the luxurious Les Orientaux Latins line , continuing with the iconic L'Art du Parfum line and concluding with the brand new and sparkling Happines Collection .

Les Orientaux Latins Les Secret II

A walk in the heart of a lush Mediterranean garden, where divine scents awaken the senses. The exquisite taste of Citrus and Fruit mixes with the sweet murmur of water and transports us far away. Pierced by the sun, this oasis flooded with flowers with a thousand shades of colors and scents invites us to abandon ourselves on a bed of jasmine picked at dawn. The woody notes of Sandalwood and Cedar fade away on an amber background of Vanilla and enrich this enchanted timeless interlude. A luminous sensuality.

L'Art du Parfum Collection

When José Eisenberg meets Juarez Machado, a brilliant Brazilian painter considered one of the greatest contemporary figurative painters , he feels the desire to visually transcribe his olfactory emotions through painting: guiding Juarez Machado step-by-step, each of his fragrances is depicted by a painting which translates the emotion. In addition to pictorial emotions, José Eisenberg also wanted to express his perfumes with the music of words: each fragrance is interpreted, in fact, by a unique and mysterious poem of 4 lines each. The precious glass bottles with crystalline transparency, but free of the lead present in the crystal, keep the olfactory accords intact for an unforgettable sensory journey to the center of the Eisenberg universe .

Happiness Collection

A sweet breath of freshness enclosed in a blaze of colours. A colorful and sparkling packaging to feel happy, young and beautiful. The Happines collection consists of 3 fragrances: YOUNG , a hymn to spontaneity in a bright and timeless accord, BEAUTIFUL , a sweet fruity and playful spring fragrance and HAPPY , the delight of a flowery flight.
